OLYMP HOTEL

Olymp Hotel is located in the oldest and largest mountain resort in Bulgaria - Borovets. Until the middle of the XX century it was known by the name Chamkoria, where in 1896 the first holiday villa was built. A little later, the summer residence of Prince Ferdinand was opened.

The resort is positioned on the northern slopes of Rila Mountain, at 1350 m above sea level and at a distance of only 70 km from Sofia, 80 km from the town of Blagoevgrad, 100 km from Rila Monastery and 120 km from the city of Plovdiv. There from start the routes to the majestic Peak of Musala, the Malyovitsa Peak, the incredible natural phenomenon - the Seven Rila Lakes, the town of Beli Iskar and to the natural sightseeing the Black Rock.

The resort offers excellent conditions for winter sports: alpine skiing, biathlon, cross-country skiing and snowboarding. The ski slopes are 24 in number, with a total length of 58 km and are suitable for advanced skiers and professionals as well as beginners and children.

The Olymp Hotel is placed next to the ski slopes. The Rotata runway is just outside the hotel entrance.
